

Planned Parenthood: A Key Player in the Radical Transgender Industry

Abortion providers like Planned Parenthood have been vocal allies of the transgender movement and have expanded the scope of their offerings to include transgender services including for minors.

Planned Parenthood has called itself the “the second largest provider of hormone therapy” nationally.¹

- Nearly 450 Planned Parenthood clinics offer transgender services nationwide—more than the number of locations that offer abortions.²
 - Some Planned Parenthood locations even provide puberty blockers to adolescents as young as 16.³
 - In 2023, Planned Parenthood shared that nearly 70% of their clinics offer transgender hormone treatment.⁴
- As transgender services have increased so too has government funding, reaching nearly $700 million in 2023.⁵
 - In the last four years Planned Parenthood’s overall services have declined by 1.3 million. Meanwhile transgender services continue to rise, accounting for at least 106,000 of Planned Parenthood’s “total services” each year.⁶
- Unethical practices have been reported both by whistleblowers and by individuals who received cross-sex hormones from Planned Parenthood.
 - A whistleblower reported that 1-2 teenage girls arrived at her clinic seeking testosterone per day in a town of 30,000. No doctors worked in the clinic, and the whistleblower stated that no requests to start testosterone were ever denied.⁷
 - Planned Parenthood has faced malpractice lawsuits from patients who received cross-sex hormones alleging negligence and lack of informed consent.⁸

Planned Parenthood promotes transgender ideology to kids.

- Planned Parenthood provides resources for teaching pre-school and elementary school kids about transgender ideology.⁹
- Planned Parenthood provides transgender and gender identity curricula for teachers to use in classrooms.¹⁰
- Planned Parenthood of Northern New England has released sexual education programs for children, including coloring pages for the “Gender Unicorn” and a gender identity word match.¹¹
